PROVIDES OUTPATIENT
NUTRITION THERAPY
FOR EATING DISORDERS

Jake Brown, RD

Visiting with an outpatient dietitian can be beneficial in sustaining eating disorder recovery. It can also be a great place to start to determine level of care needs of the patient. Working with our dietitian can help to solidify behaviors that were learned in an inpatient setting as well as serve as a support in less structured environment. We'd love the opportunity to be part of the outpatient treatment team!

We'd like to announce that our experienced Dietitian Jake Brown, RD is able to provide Telehealth and Face to Face Outpatient Nutrition Counseling Appointments!
Now accepting New Patient Referrals!
